MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: NPIC R&D News Notes

25X1
1. Publication of the NPIC R&D News Notes by TSG has been resurrected. In the past these News Notes have been the only means for conveniently conveying and disseminating R&D items of interest to the eventual users. Additionally, since this publication is distributed throughout the intelligence community (including [redacted] it provides an excellent means for keeping all concerned posted on equipment developments and modifications for Reconnaissance Applications.

2. The success of this periodical depends on each member of RED. It is, therefore, requested that each Branch Chief and Project Monitor provide complete support when solicited for written articles for publication. Submission of other sundry items you think may be of interest to the News Notes recipients would be also warranted and appreciated.

3. [redacted] RED/SRB) are currently compiling information for the next issue and will be responsible for future publications. Your support to these individuals is appreciated.
